

Our mission is “To put the family in the hands of the Father.”

The Men of St. Joseph is not a civic group, nor a service group, nor a fund raising group. We are a spiritually oriented group of lay Catholic men, dedicated to becoming the spiritual leaders of our families by strengthening our faith and being “real world” examples of Christ. Our group bolsters discussion of faith and prayer life specifically for men, giving men new ways to reflect upon their lives and be better servants to God and their family. The result is nothing less than a revived culture, the same culture that Pope John Paul II called the Culture of Life.

We meet weekly on Tuesday evenings for one hour. Our meetings consist of prayer, readings from the upcoming Sunday Mass and a discussion of the practical application of that example in today’s world. This weekly prescription help give men the tools, confidence, and support of other men, to become the spiritual leaders we are all called to be.

Our hope, is that participation in the Men of St. Joseph meetings will lead to invigorated spiritual lives of Catholic men, and by their positive influence, to that of our families, friends and co-workers.

Attend one of our meetings and check us out. There is absolutely no obligation, but if you attend - you may find what you are looking for. If you would like more information, please contact us.
